Lunch and Dinner

Bohicket Marina is the home of Rosebank Farms Café, and it's run by local character Julie Limehouse. Her fun, carefree spirit reigns in old-fashioned Southern touches like "Drunk Butterbeans and Rice," "Black Strap Molasses BBQ Sauce," and "Tobacco Fried Onions." The dining room is comfortable and sophisticated without trying too hard, and her hardcore Lowcountry spirit and accent infuse the whole café with an authenticity that has earned a cadre of faithful followers. If for no other reason, the brilliant sunset over the marsh, a cool maritime breeze, and the swaying of masts as you wait outside for a table is worth the drive from town.
